

NV 60/96*NOTE VERBALE

The Embassy of Malta in Madrid presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Principality of Andorra and has the honour to refer to its note verbale N.V.MALTA 01/96 dated 30th May 1996 relative to its request for the abolition of the requirement of visas for citizens of Andorra visiting Malta.

The Embassy of Malta has the pleasure to inform that, with the aim of tightening further the excellent relations between Malta and the Principality of Andorra, and within the framework of the diplomatic relations established on the 24th July 1995, the authorities in Malta have accorded that, on the basis of reciprocity, citizens of Andorra will no longer need a visa to visit Malta.

The Embassy of Malta in Madrid avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Principality of Andorra the assurances of its highest consideration.
