

THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING IS SIGNED BETWEEN:

Mr. Carlo Romeo, on behalf of San Marino RTV S.P.A., Viale J. F. Kennedy 13 – 47890 – Città di San Marino - Republic of San Marino, hereinafter referred to as San Marino RTV and

Mr. Tonio Portuguese, on behalf of Public Broadcasting Services Limited, C-13140, of 75 St Luke's road, G'Mangia, hereinafter referred to as PBS

And whereas it is premised that PBS and San Marino RTV have the necessary resources to enter into an agreement which will be for the mutual benefit of both parties;

It is agreed as follows:

1. That both parties shall endeavor to help each other in several fields, namely:
 - i. Both TVs shall list programmes which can forward to each other for transmission at no cost;
 - ii. San Marino RTV and PBS agrees to share knowledge and expertise through the exchange of journalists and TV personnel in general. The parties agree to organize stages in both countries (whose length will be discussed and approved by both parties) during which TV personnel will experience the normal TV life and work. The hosting country reserves the right to accept every single stage. Expenses must be previously agreed by both parties. These stages shall be organised following the laws of the hosting country.
 - iii. Both parties agree to train the TV personnel in newscasting, in programming, in archiving and in technical expertise.
 - iv. PBS shall help to improve the English language to the San Marino RTV personnel whilst San Marino RTV shall do the same for the Italian language to the Maltese colleagues;
 - v.
1. The parties agree to endeavor to find archival material which can be utilised.
2. San Marino RTV and PBS are each to designate a member of their staff to liaise with each other in the actuating of what is agreed upon.
3. Any material/clips pertaining to the San Marino RTV/PBS utilized shall carry an acknowledgement referable to the source.

4. Either party shall undertake to film and produce news reports on the agreed topics according to the needs of each other and deliver to the other party the aforesaid reports in international acoustic version together with the texts of reports in English and/or in Italian.

5. The parties agree to send every news material via FTP servers.

6. The party in request shall only be allowed to use the programs or materials authorized by the broadcasting party on its own affiliated channels and websites, and neither party shall authorize any third party to use such materials of the other party.

7. The party in request must verify the copyright and other rights involved in any program or material, and this with the contact person of the broadcasting party before its delivery and using, and must be responsible solely for any and all issues regarding the rights of the third party.

8. The party receiving and using any program under this Agreement shall ensure that the broadcasted program complies with the laws and regulations of the region or country where the broadcasting is conducted, and the aforesaid party shall assume all the responsibilities arising therefrom.

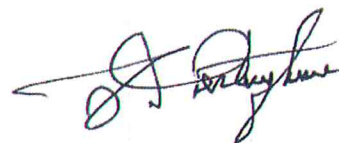

9. This Agreement shall be effective for one year.

10. Any matter unspecified in this Agreement or any doubt arising from the interpretation of the terms and conditions herein or any other disputes regarding this Agreement shall be handled and settled through friendly consultation between the parties.
